Parish News

CONDOLENCES to Ruth Clarke, family, neighbours and friends on the death of Tim Clarke, who passed away on 25 April, aged 74 after a sudden illness. He was a much loved and respected gentleman, well known as estate manager at Grimsthorpe for many years before his retirement.

WELCOME to Anna at Lings Farm Cottage, Witham on the Hill. We hope you will be very happy here.

WELL DONE to all the volunteers who helped clear the petanque pitch in Witham on the Hill. Over a couple of weeks plenty of people spared a couple of hours. It was a real community effort. Thank you all.

CAKE, FIZZ AND PETANQUE What a wonderful Sunday afternoon we had on the village green in Witham on the Hill. The sun shone, about 40 people enjoyed cake, fizz and various games including Jenga, croquet and petanque. Thank you to the Hall Management Social Committee for organising the event; and especially those who helped to clear the pitch – a job well done. Now we have to keep it up to scratch!

BIG BREKKIE will resume in September. The organisers are struggling with helpers, and would be grateful for willing volunteers to go on the rota. If you are able to help, please contact Frances Plummer.

Dates for your Diary

Monday 3 June, 7pm - Witham on the Hill Parish Hall. Witham on the Hill Historical Society AGM. A meeting to wind up this local charity and decide on how to deal with archives and assets.

The Vicar Writes

The feast of the Ascension, which we kept on Thursday 9th May, is often overshadowed by the two great celebrations on either side of it, namely Easter and Pentecost. In many ways the Ascension marks both an end and a beginning. In the first instance it marks the end of Jesus's visible, tangible life as a human being here on earth; a line is drawn under the resurrection appearances as Jesus leaves his disciples for a second time and ascends into Heaven. That meant that his followers could no longer walk with him, talk with him, eat with him or mistake him for being the gardener as they'd previously done. What follows the Ascension is what we might call 'the age of the Spirit'. The Spirit, as we know, will continue to bear witness to all that Jesus has said and done and will lead us into 'all truth' (the truth of who Jesus is and what he's done for us). The Spirit will establish that truth and equip us to bear witness to it in our lives.

So, the Ascension really is the bridge between the Resurrection and Pentecost (the bridge between the end of phase one and the beginning of phase two). It's also the official end to Easter and the beginning of the period that will only end when Jesus returns (the age of the Spirit will continue until that day). But the Ascension matters regarding how we understand Jesus and how we understand ourselves. Why? Well, Jesus, as we know, existed from all time and eternity with God. The Prologue to St John's Gospel that we hear read on Christmas day reminds us that Jesus was in the beginning with God and he was God. Through the Incarnation he was made man and dwelt among us. After the Resurrection, Jesus returned to Heaven having accomplished his mission in human form. But he didn't return to Heaven the equivalent of how he left. Having been born a human being (perfectly God and perfectly man) Jesus remains just that – perfect God and perfect man. Being human wasn't a phase that he went through, it's part of who he is and now always will be.

What that means for us (for you and me) is that, from the Ascension onwards, we know that there will always be a space for humanity with God in Heaven. The Heavenly Mansions are now open to receive redeemed humanity. Heaven will never be a place where we feel like we don't really belong (and we've all known places like that). In Heaven we will be perfectly at home, precisely because Jesus became one of us and has now returned to Heaven. The Godhead has embraced humanity such that humanity will always have a place with God. And because Heaven has now received the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Christ, the Ascension also reminds us that God didn't create us merely as souls (something akin to Willow the Wisp). God doesn't save us as souls only, he saves us as whole people. When we look forward to Heaven, we look forward to it as complete human beings, united with God body and soul, after the pattern and example of Jesus at his Ascension. That truth, that reality, should give us cause for joy! As the Psalmist says, 'God has gone up with shouts of joy, the Lord with the sound of a trumpet' (Psalm 47.5). Where Jesus has gone, we can then follow and that should be good and joyous news for everyone.

However, if we fail to understand that reality and that joy, then our hearts will struggle to follow and embrace it. One of the ways in which that joy has been expressed historically can be seen in the very English tradition (possibly stemming from the Middle Ages) of depicting the Ascension as a cloud with two feet two dangling out of it. If you visit the Chapel of the Ascension at the Shrine of Our Lady in Walsingham, you'll see just that – two scarred feet being drawn up into a cloud. On the one hand, it's slightly comical but, on the other, the thought of it might just make you smile, and that smile could mark the beginning of joy (Heavenly joy) and with it the end of earthly despair (despair about the state of the world and maybe even the state of our lives).

Yes, we may chuckle at the absurdity of two feet dangling from a cloud but those feet convey a deeper truth; a truth that rejoices to know that, just as there's room for Christ's humanity in God so, through Christ, there's room enough for our humanity (yours and mine) in Heaven.

Fr Ed will be licensed as Minister in Charge (Rector Designate) of St Mary's Stamford by the Bishop of Lincoln at 7pm on Thursday 20th June (all welcome!). This new responsibility will be in addition to his current roles. He will also be taking a three-month sabbatical from the beginning of July to the end of September (except for August weddings).

PROTECTING YOUR MOBILE PHONE

Apparently, one in three items stolen is a mobile phone. The majority of these thefts are carried out without the use of or threat of violence. These thieves are not only interested in the phone itself; they want your data too.

Criminals will go to incredible lengths to steal unlocked phones. They may “shoulder surf”, that is as simple as looking over your shoulder when you enter your phone PIN. In some places, they may even covertly film hours/days before stealing your phone – just to ensure that they can access your phone even if it is locked.

As soon as they have your phone, they will start to lock you out of all your accounts.

They will most probably disable the location facility, so, making the Find My phone app useless. They will then systematically start to change the passwords to your email accounts, your bank login, your store cards and your social media accounts. This can all be done with amazing speed. Fraudsters can then use your phone to buy expensive goods or even transfer money.

And of course, the bank or credit card company will send the authorisation code to your stolen phone – so the thief has it all.

Not only is this upsetting and possibly financially ruinous to you, these criminals will try to use your phone contacts to steal from your family and friends by contacting them directly from your email, WhatsApp, Facebook, IM or any other form of social media asking for help – often in the form of sending gift cards.

SO, WHAT CAN YOU DO ABOUT IT?

Increasing your own “cyber hygiene” is one way of doing this. Nearly half of us use the same PIN to gain access to our phones and multiple apps, services and bank cards – this makes it even easier for the criminals. Storing multiple bank cards and your driving licence on your phone case is a further gift to the thieves.

You can also increase your level of security by ensuring that all your email, social media, financial and other critical apps all have so-called 2-Factor Authentication enabled.

You need to be clever here though as most people have all their authentication codes sent to their mobile phone. The very device that may now be in the hands of a clever and tech-savvy criminal.

Speed is really of the essence here. All major mobile phone manufacturers have really useful help pages that tell you exactly what to do if your phone is snatched from you. It is well worth reading these now and having a practice run to ensure that you know what to do.

As an iPhone user, I know about the Stolen Device Protection app built into the iPhone. Enabling this makes it nearly impossible even for the thieves who know your password to make any critical changes to your phone. I regret that I cannot find a similar protection built-in app for Android users.

See this Apple link for details - About Stolen Device Protection for iPhone – Apple Support \(UK\)

I have found a new UK-developed app that works on all types of phone – “Nuke from Orbit”. I have not used it (yet) but it states that you can cancel all your bank and credit cards as well as shut down your online apps and social networks all with the “push” of a single panic button.

See - How it works - Nuke From Orbit the smart way to protect your data

Or - Meet Nuke From Orbit, because protecting your data has never been more important - Maddyness UK

Back to the in-built iPhone protection, with Stolen Device Protection turned on, if your iPhone is not in a familiar location, it must be authenticated using Face ID or Touch ID before it will give access to a number of functions. Sadly though, it will still allow the thief to use your passcode (if they know it) to use Apple Pay.

This handy app also has an additional security delay function. This prevents any critical changes to the phone security settings or your Apple ID for an hour, after which, if your iPhone is not in a familiar location, you must authenticate using Face ID or Touch ID, wait for the security delay to end, then authenticate with Face ID or Touch ID again to update settings.

Witham on the Hill Parish Council

Notes of the Annual Parish Meeting held on the 13 May 2024

The Chair of the Parish Council Cllr Charles Henriques welcomed all that were present the Annual Parish Meeting.

Apologies: Apologies were received from Cllr Sue Pennant-Jones, County Cllr Charlotte Vernon and District Cllr Penny Robins.

The minutes of the last Annual Parish Meeting held on the 15 May 2023 were approved as a correct record and were duly signed by Cllr Henriques.

Report from the Chair of the Parish Council:

As usual, my thanks to all councillors for their support during the last twelve months and I would also like to thank Cllrs Charlotte Vernon and Penny Robins for their support for our community at County and District levels respectively. Changes to the Parish Council this year have seen the departure of Cllr Duncan Brock as a result of his move with Elaine to live on the south coast. Our thanks for his contribution to our community and we wish them every happiness in their new home. Cllr Sue Pennant Jones was also reaffirmed as a member of the Parish Council by co-option.

Planning applications we have been asked to comment on over the last twelve months have, as usual, mainly related to arboreal work, with the exception of an application to provide additional car parking for the Six Bells in the field to the right of the pub. This was debated at some length. The expansion of the pub restaurant to include al fresco dining under the front canopy has increased on-street parking by patrons which is causing significant difficulties for traffic passing through the village and residents alike. There was a clear need for additional parking which the Parish Council recognised could be ameliorated only by supporting an application by the pub in conjunction with the neighbouring landowner to use part of the field as a car park. The Parish Council resolved to support this but requested conditions be attached to any consent which were subsequently granted conditionally by SKDC.

The deteriorated state of Bottom St, with continuous water overflow from the drain pots and significant potholes, is still being addressed very actively. With the help of Cllr Charlotte Vernon, a meeting was arranged with the Senior Highways Officer from LCC, Mike Brown and a plan of investigation was agreed. It has taken some time to finally resolve the water flow issue, as the unusually wet winter has stretched the County Council resources. However, the water overflow has been resolved and a further meeting is planned this month when it is hoped a timetable to get the road resurfaced can be agreed.

The reactive speed sign continues to provide a helpful reminder to motorists to check their speed through the village. It has also demonstrated that there are relatively few instances of significant speeding and when these do occur it is often late in the evening or very early morning. The Parish Council is applying for another location to be approved so that traffic is alerted as it approaches the 30mph signs entering the village from Little Bytham.

Cllr Paul Smith represented the Parish Council and laid the wreath at the Remembrance Sunday service in St Andrew's Church last November. Our thanks to Dave Haydon who has volunteered to make some planters for the village along with some 'Tommy' silhouettes for deployment later this year.

I conclude by wishing everyone well, and my thanks to Bernard for his help and advice over the last twelve months.

The Clerk, Bernard Champness, gave details of the income received during 2023-24 and how that was spent and what the money had been spent on. There were no questions, and a copy of his report is attached to the formal Minutes of the meeting.

Questions from Residents: Mr Jason Bedell asked councillors how they felt about environmental issues and wanted to know what proactive steps the Parish Council was planning to take in order to promote awareness and if there were any specific projects that were going to be pursued. It was explained that although individual councillors were indeed supportive of taking positive steps where possible, given the size of the parish and a desire to maintain the annual precept at a low level, our policy of necessity had to be reactive rather than positively looking for issues to pursue. This is largely because the Parish Council does not own or have direct control over any land or buildings. However, if residents suggested measures they would like to see adopted, the Parish Council was happy to consider these. He agreed to set out some ideas in writing for discussion.

There being no other business the meeting was formally closed at 19.35

WITHAM HALL

Witham Hall hosted more than 130 alumni, former staff and former parents on Saturday 18th May for the inaugural Old Withamians Day event. Guests enjoyed tours of the school with pupils and a walk down memory lane in the Archives.

It was great fun to hear tales from their time at Witham too. We hope to see everyone again for our Christmas Drinks on Monday 16th December at The George in Stamford.

Please help share the date and encourage friends to update their details on withamhall.com/alumni to receive invitations to future events.

The Witham Church and School Estate Charity

The Witham Church and School Estate Educational Foundation

The Witham Church and School Estate charity was set up in 1548 to provide education and care for the children of the Witham Church (St Andrew's) ecclesiastical parish. The charity funds were gathered through legacies and charitable gifts. In 1692 a deed was drawn up and a board of trustees put in place to manage the trust and its assets. The funds originally provided for schoolhouses and paid for children's education and a schoolmaster prior to the introduction of government-provided education.

Today, the Trust funds are used to maintain the Parish Hall and, where necessary, St Andrew's Church. Additionally, the Trust runs and funds the Witham Church and School Estate Educational Foundation. This sister charity is used to assist students within the Parish with furthering their education usually by way of a cash grant to help them during their time at university, college or on an apprenticeship.

Have you considered leaving a legacy in your will or making a charitable gift?

If this is something you are thinking about, then do please consider making this gift to our local Parish charities. By doing so, you can be assured that the funds are being used to improve and assist with the continued education of young people in our Parish and/or to help ensure that our community retains its Parish Hall and Parish Church as hubs of the local community.

If you wish to leave a legacy in your will or make a charitable gift to our local charities, or would like further information, then please contact the Clerk by email: withamtrust@gmail.com.

Witham on the Hill WI

May 2024

Penny Wainwright, our speaker for the evening, worked for the County Council, was a teacher and an education consultant. She retired in 2016 and became a travel writer, writes articles for Lincolnshire Life and Readers Digest online. She became interested in Lincolnshire Women in Aviation, & visited the Bomber Command Centre, Duxford, Scampton, the Petwood Hotel in Woodhall Spa, East Kirkby and Thorpe Camp for research. She told lots of anecdotes of Daisy Lavender, a VAD nurse in WWI, who got married and ended up in Marshall's Yard works in Gainsborough, building wings for Bristol planes.

Penny showed postcards Daisy had written, dating from 1910 to 1930 which gave details of her day to day life. Other ladies included May Meade – Guy Gibson's cook, Mary Benfield who was a tailor, Barbara Watkinson who worked in stores, Eileen Strawson a bus and ambulance driver, who drove Guy Gibson around Lincolnshire and met Winston Churchill and Barnes Wallis, Peggy Meek a driver at RAF Spilsby, Marion Clarke who was still driving aged 90, and Ada Peake Lewis who had a novel based on her!

Frances Plummer gave the vote of thanks for a fascinating talk. The fused-glass workshop led by Claire Hart was a great success and it is hoped to have the items back from the kiln very shortly. Our next outing will be a visit to Browne's hospital in July.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday 4 June at 7.30pm in St Andrew's Parish Hall, Witham on the Hill, when Michael Elliot will talk about Stoneywell, a National Trust restoration in Leicestershire. Visitors and new members always welcome. For further information contact Jane Clark, 01778 590232.

Jane's Seasonal Recipe

I have used this recipe for many years from a Milk Marketing Board Cook Book (in the 1970's!) It is a good way of using up meat from the Sunday roast and stretching it into another meal.

Savoury Lamb Crumble

12 oz cold roast lamb or beef

1 small onion

4 ½ oz plain flour

1 tablespoon tomato puree

½ pint stock

2 oz butter

2 oz mature cheddar

½ teaspoon mixed herbs

Mince the meat and onions together. Mix in ½ oz flour, puree and stock. Turn into a pie dish. Rub the butter into remaining 4 oz flour until resembles fine breadcrumbs. Stir in grated cheese and herbs. Spoon over the meat and bake 180°C for 45 mins to 1 hour until crumble is crisp and golden. Serve with green veg and gravy.
